Come September and Corona High was back to its normal self. Jeff Jenson and Susan Miller were busy getting their schedules changed, while Francis Garcia was saying Hi to friends that she hadn't seen since last June, or at least not since Saturday night. Sophomores had trouble finding their first class and everyone was looking for Mrs. Rubin as the 7:50 bell rang.

Who were those guys that scurried around campus, hiding behind sunglasses and walkie talkies? They always seemed to be inognito, but it was only the look that came with their authority. Some called them the Administration, and they only looked tough. Just ask Todd Simon, he'll tell you that cruising with Mr. Weber is kind of fun. Then there was Mr. Sellman who resembled a secret serviceman. One of the fellows that the President couldn't be too far away. Mrs. Naylor could always be seen running around campus. What about the time Pat Masson forgot his pants for the paid concert, and Mr. DiPasio had to drive him to North High in his camper? Mrs. Hadcox in the Student Store could always tell you everything that was happening on campus. As the Activities Director, she had many responsibilities. Scott Czarne said she always had to push those leadership kids to get things planned. With the beginning of each new semester, we all got scheduled into classes that best fit our academic needs. Remember getting put into a class which you knew nothing about? And when you went to your counselor to switch the class, they always told you to come back in two weeks after things settled? So you went back two weeks later, and they told you to stick it out, because it was too late to change your class. You were miserable for a few days, but soon realized that the class wasn't that bad. The teacher was funny, the homework was easy, and the guy next to you was kind of cute. Here: 1. Mr. Anthony-Counselor 2. Mr. DiPasio-Ass't Principal 3. Director of Athletics 4. ENGLISH AND SPEECH

Writing a paragraph about an admired person or compiling a vast array of not cards and information helped juniors Andrea Jones and Alyssa Dorn express themselves in written word. For the second year, Mrs. Hippie's classes found satisfaction in writing to American service men and women around the world. "Getting started was hard, but once I got going it was fun," said Ron Lopez, and everyone likes to get letters. Literature students relived the Mississippi river-life with Mark Twain, ancient Rome with Shakespeare, and contemporary emotion with John Updike. Required of us all English and Speech helped improve our communication skills, gave us frustration, a sense of history, and enjoyment. Photo 1 Mrs. Dover 2 Mr Phillips 3, Mr. Perkins 4. With Homecoming still a week away, snack time was filled with exuberant activity as campus clubs presented their candidates for court. Skits varied from Alicia Dorsey's caveman to Kurt Tengen as the 'Woman Maker' in the football skit; to Madrigal's 'Wheel of Fortune'; and Dan Nazarek's balloon filled fantasy. When the confetti and cardboard were cleared away the nominees for the 1985 Homecoming Court were: Pam Atwood, nominated by Girl's Tennis; Kristine Barnes-Girl's Soccer; Jeannie Boone-Coronettes; Sandi Colapinto-Leanettes; Geri Higgins-Madrigal Singers; Suzi Honeter-Boy's Soccer; Chris Laquay-Baseball; Adrianna McGraw-Football; Lisa Miller-GAA; Michelle Robinson-Girl's Basketball; Sonya Rodgers-Wrestling; Elke Rosenbauer-Softball; Jennifer Scarpine-S.A.D.D.; Pippi Sutor-Choir; Julie Smith-Track and Cross-Country; Gina Stabile-Boy's Basketball; Ken Star-Volleyball; Barbara Szakacs-Lee-Amigos; Jana Thacker-Leadership; Shirley Valquette-Bands; Martha Villacana-Mecha; Tuedi Vopat-Pop Squad; and Lana Rachael-Swiss Team. On Friday, the principal's quad was beautifully decorated with banners, balloons, and colorful streamers by Kelly DeLange and her ASB committee for the announcement of court. Megan Sjurson, playing Peter Pan, announced Gina Stabile to court as her 'Tinkerbell of 1985'; followed by Karen Kremer's Red Riding Hood, and Rachael Horn's Frog as the characters of David Burrough's fantasy presented Kristine, Sandi, Suzi, Lana, Elke, and Pippi to complete the 1985 Court.

The next week was Homecoming. Students such as Sonya Rodgers involved themselves in the week's dress-up days and the snack and lunchtime activities. On Monday, the court attacked the juniors and sophomores in the balloon bust. At lunch, we saw Mr. Perkins outcast Ms. Davis for the last musical chair. Tuesday was the slave auction. The court, in togetherness, waited to be sold with Kristine Barnes bringing the highest bid of $21.00. On costume day there were a variety of costumes, from geisha girls like Debbie Griffin and Dana Light to Mark Grizzle and Bill Hume's punk rockers. At lunch students threw creme pies at the court, an unforgettable sensation. Thursday was slob day with Diane Behrens and Kim White playing the Eggplant Swing while at lunch the court got dunked over and over again by campus marksmen. Finally Friday came; students and faculty wore red and gold to show their spirit. On Friday Corona's own "Once Upon a Fantasy" parade took place on Sixth Street. At 9 o'clock the PFA color guard led off the parade followed by frolicking and colorful clown. CHS's marching band, rifle and flag team provided the parade cadence. Behind them, Mecha Club members hung candy to the crowd from their colorful vehicle. Next came the honored Grand Marshals Mr. and Mrs. Mackey. The sophomore class presented "Disneyland Spirit of '88" on their float. Christy Hopkins, Tina Bradford, and Chris Knaak were among the sophomores dressed as Walt Disney characters. Raney Junior High's band and flag team made their appearance, followed by the PFA float entry "Beat the Huskies" Waving, Kim Freeman, 1984 Homecoming Queen, led the 1985 Homecoming Court along the parade route. Football players Kirk Harkey and Kurt Tengen were right behind on motorcycles. "We're off to See the Wizard" was the Junior float entry, complete with their own yellow brickroad. The Senior float featured their fantasy "Pom Cruise Ship Wreck" with Tracy Labrie, Eric Wilson and Steve Roddquest portraying their ultimate fantasy, Hawaiian style. The traditional red screaming fire engine filled with the spirited pep squad, finished off the parade. IT WAS A DRAW

During Homecoming week the girl's volleyball team met and defeated the Norco Cougars in a highly-charged match. Meanwhile, the girl's tennis upset the highly-ranked team from North and lost a tight duel with Norco. Lacking only three points the boy's Crest Country team suffered a defeat to Arlington, while the girls continued their successful season and on the football field the Panthers played an exciting game which kept the high-spirited homecoming crowd on their feet. STATE REQUIREMENT & SOCIAL STUDIES

SIGNALS, SOCIOLOGY AND STOCKS

Along with Social Science, State Requirements for "Driver's Ed." as it is commonly called is a class that every sophomore must face. Surprisingly, most sophomores actually looked forward to having this class. However, according to Josie Bix and Shannon Howell, the class did not live up to their expectations. Bus Greover could not wait to be done with all of the busywork involved in the class and get her license. "But on the road, during Driver's Training, many new drivers had some pretty exciting experiences. For instance, Heather Linstead lost control of the Driver's Ed. car, went off the edge of the road and hit a mudbank, splashing the car with mud. Ellen Grabner broke her neck by backing into it. According to Mr. Fritz, Karen Hamborg's turnabouts were the worst he'd seen in his twenty-three years of teaching. He also said that he named a curve in a road "St. Katherine's Curve" because it was there that Katherine Miranda "almost killed" Mr. Fritz and the other students present. While sophomores were struggling with their three-point turn, Juniors were trying to memorize dates and events in American History and Seniors were watching their stocks go up or down in their Economics classes and learning about the Constitution in their Government classes. 1. On Halloween the campus was filled with even stranger characters than usual. Nerds, bunnies, babies, witches, and Barbara Learning as Mother Superior. The ASB sponsored snack and lunch activities to get both faculty and students involved. Again this year Mrs Hippie played a mean game of musical chairs Halloween night, that enchanted time when the streets became filled with hordes of children seeking treats. Parties and more parties was the bill of fare for the high school students

College Fair

The week of October 28th many students attended the annual College Fair in the library and cafeteria. Representatives from independant, military, state, and community institutions of higher learning came to tell students about entrance requirements, housing, financial aid, and answer individual questions. During lunch many students took advantage to talk on a one to one basis with the respresentatives and pick up brochures

COMPETITION BREAKS BOREDOM

A popular song is blaring and can be heard as students are coming out of their second period classes. They flock to crowd around the marked off area in the West Quad. Eric Arnold is seen setting up a large black podium while one of the A.S.B. students holds a microphone and is heard saying something like "We need 3 seniors, 3 juniors and 3 Sophomores." Come and participate in the Fopsie, have? After the calling and bribing of the A.S.B. students, several people such as Karen Cutler, Jennifer Johnson, and Suzi Honeter walk down and the game begins. These games were called the Wednesday Activities. A.S.B. students began to plan them as early as August at "Camp Haddock." Most of the games were successful in getting the students involved in the year-long competition between the sophomores, juniors and seniors. Some however, were not so successful. Remember "Mr. Cool" — the game where you win by sitting on a block of ice the longest? Wes Speake, Matt Forester and Jim Lawson sat on ice blocks all during Snack and nobody ever won. Remember the "Whipped cream pile on" when the whipped cream kept falling off of Tracy Draper's head so Tracy and April Townsend frustrated, had a whipped cream fight? Those games were sure a lot of fun and they gave us a moment of entertainment during the day. BUSINESS DEPARTMENT

STUDENTS LEARN
WORKFORCE SKILLS

Enrolling in typing, shorthand, and accounting gave the individual student skills to help be better prepared for getting a job after graduation. While, just being able to type her own assignments was the main objective of Tracey Thiesman to take Mr. Carter's typing class. Accounting gave Chrissy McDaniel and the other students in Mrs. Player's accounting program a good foundation for keeping track of their own finances in addition to helping them become acquainted with the business world. A LONG WAY HOME

Last fall, Sue Rhinehart, along with her cast of eighteen, produced the original play "A Long Way Home" a comedy old western farce. Besides acting and memorizing lines, actors were required to help with set construction. Many of the costumes used were hand-made by Rhinehart, with help by Tia Goldston, Buffy Gipson and Mrs. Gipson. For Scott Ozenne this was his tenth production whereas Marcie Beasley was new to the stage and was a bit reluctant when asked to tryout. But after five-and-a-half weeks of rehearsal and four weekends of workcrew, the cast and crew performed a delightful production with half of the proceedings being donated to the needy farmers in the United States.

CROSS COUNTRY

BARNES & SJURSON LEAD GIRLS TO CIF

Number 1 The 1985 Cross Country season produced Coach Newton's first girl's league championship, going 7-0 in league. The girls' team was led by freshman Jamie Barnes, junior Meghan Sjurson and senior Pam Randel. At CIF they placed a strong fifth, just missing the trip to the finals. Our boys had a tough season, losing to Arlington, Perris, and Hemet. The boys were edged out of a CIF berth by a coin toss with Moreno Valley at the league meet. Doug Barnes, senior; Gustavo Arce, sophomore; and Louie Barrera, junior, lead the varsity squad. The JV's year was a year that hadn't been seen for over a decade. The JV's had much stronger competition and were beaten by rival Hemet. With one loss they still won league. Shane Lindsey and Pedro Nava had excellent runs at league finals. The 85 team was the largest ever in Coach Newton's career, 46 runners. At the Keweenaw Club sponsored banquet the following awards were awarded: 500 mile medal winners Doug Barnes, Jamie Barnes, Carrie Higbee, Ryan Wright. Most Inspirational Meghan Sjurson, Mikel Baughman; Team Captains-Julie Clarke and Mike Zubak (JV), Sjurson and Brad Glassick (Varsity). School record awards went to Jamie Barnes, Sjurson and Gus Arce. The most improved runners-

Pride • Integrity • Guts • Spirit

The Corona High Volleyball team fought to a third-place finish in the competitive Ivy League. The girls finished the season with a 10-5 league record, and a 13-7 overall record. Seniors Keri Starr, Kellie Greene, Geri Higgins, and Tricia Kelly led the Panthers into the CIF playoffs. Although the girls played a tough, competitive match, they were defeated in the playoffs by eventual section runner-up Magnolia. Keri Starr, a co-captain, was selected Most Valuable Player by her teammates. Keri led the team in serves and points. The other co-captain, Geri Higgins, was awarded the Bill Foster Memorial Award for Most Outstanding Player for her spiking and blocking skills. Junior Janet Ibbetson was selected Most Improved Player. The Panthers had a well-balanced game with Juniors Kristie Young and Denise Wilson setting the offensive pace. Juniors Julie Vitale, Chris Weaver, Darla Bell, and Amy Johnson led the team with outstanding coverage and defense. Sophomores Shellie McCall and Renee McCall will add to the team's championship quest next season.

This was a building year for the JV volleyball team! Coach Courtney Doolittle worked hard teaching young players like Lisa Cervantes, Rhonda Felix, Sylvia Ortiz, and Lori Chun the skills of passing the ball well. Developing into very fine setters on the JV team were Michelle Roberts, Cheri Lara, Dede Berner, and Tracey Ferguson. Leading the JV volleyball attack was Chrissy Wolfe, Paula Varela, Kim Wright, and Denise Hallett. Heather Umstead joined the team late, but was a great addition. Sophomore Cheri Lara was selected Most Valuable Player by her teammates, while Dede Berner was voted the Most Improved Player. The JV team was the MOST IMPROVED in the Ivy League. At the beginning of the season, the team couldn't serve the ball over the net. By the end of the season, the girls were winning at least one game from each opponent.

GIRLS

TENNIS TEAM

BYLSMA MAKES ALL-IVY LEAGUE HONORS

The Corona Senior High Girls Tennis Team started the season minus two returning lettermen. The slack was amply taken care of by new comers Cindy Soliday, Nicole Garcia, and Becky Turvey. According to last years finish, and taking into consideration other talent in the league, Corona was expected to finish 4th or 5th. North and Hemet proved too be an experience. Against Ramona, Corona swept winning (11-7) with the second match being an easy victory for C H S. Norco proved to be the closest rival for Corona. During the first encounter against Norco, Corona ended in a tie (9-9) but Corona won based on the number of games (73-72). In October Corona, only short 2 points, expected a defeat against Norco making it a close exhilarating game for Corona. The combination of Michelle Robinson and Cindy Soliday proved to be one of the best ever at Corona Senior High. During the meet against Hemet Michelle and Cindy swept all 3 matches (7-5), (6-0), and (7-6). The Corona team ended league play with an overall record of (11-7) and a league record of (-5). Although tied for 3rd in league with Norco, Norco went to C.I.F. because of head-to-head competition with Corona. Dawn Bytsma worked hard during the off season and her hard work paid off as our number one player. Through the season Dawn swept most of her single matches, which lead her to win ALL-IVY League Honors at league finals in November. Mr. Nino awarded Michelle Robinson most valuable player for doubles, captain, and most inspirational at Mr. and Mrs. Soliday's house. Dawn Bytsma received most valuable player for singles and Becky Alba most improved.

The pep squad, led by captains Kathy Wolowicz (song), Karen Gutter (varsity), and Sandy Rander (junior varsity), brought spirit to Corona High with great enthusiasm. Beginning the year with camp at the University of California, Irvine, the songleaders won a superior trophy and the team won the "Unity Award." Throughout the year the pep squad performed at pep rallies, assemblies, football games, and basketball games. They also attended other sports as well. In January, they began indoor competition. According to Wolowicz, the 85-86 year was "a lot better than the last two years." This year's team was a talented and enthusiastic group; they got along well with each other and everyone around them.

KO•HI•NUR

During the second semester of the 1984-85 school year, Corona High was able to revive its newspaper, the KO•HI•NUR. This years staff under the guidance of Mrs. Hadcox, has been able to produce the paper once a month. Staff members are: editor-Dan Bassett, Assistant editor-Jana Thacker, Feature editor-Helen Rekosiewicz, Editorial editor-Jennifer Scrapine, Cartoonist-Pat Masson, Pictures-Ed Bechtell, Sports-J D. YEARBOOK

3 Sometimes instead of just remembering that this or that happened, we moments need to be lived and then relived. "Shut up Maffie!" long explanatory explanations followed by "what am I supposed to do? what's this?" D-E scratched in on the lower corner of the chalk board "scratch 'n' sniff and a tummy cover" "people cropping pictures does not mean actually cutting them!" VOCAL MUSIC

Madrigals

On campus there is a select group of students who belong to singing — rather singing belongs to them. They're the Madrigals, chosen through auditions only. So what's a Madrigal? Well, without sounding too kinky, they're students who are in the floor to learn how to breathe, sing in the dark and play kazoo's, all of which, at once. O.K. admittedly the truth has been bent slightly, but not entirely. They take their music seriously and even though being a Madrigal requires time and certain responsibilities — they're gratified with food donations and the interaction with people. Besides, they get out of classes and miss school! This year's officers: President Beverly Turk, Vice Pres. Kerry Higbee, Secretary, Treas. Barbara Gipson. Members: Stephen, Action, Steven, Corey, Melissa Davidson, Anthony Descheres, Lynette Devin, Theresa Gordon, Jo Ann Griffin, Geri Higgins, Kathryn Hitch, Melissa Kane, Michele McGuire, Richard McIntosh, Erin Nelson, Carl Pruett, Michael Rose, Caranya Templeton.

Future Farmers of America, or FFA, is a fairly large club of students. The purpose of this club is to help students understand agriculture. SADD

"Friends Don't Let Friends Drive Drunk," is Students Against Drunk Driver's motto. And with key chains, buttons, activities they get their point across. During Homecoming they passed out "Contracts for Life" and Buddy cards. The club stresses that it's just plain stupid to drive when under the influence of alcohol, and if you are really a friend you won't let anyone drive who is drunk. Michael Horn is the chairperson and Mr. Doser is acting sponsor. Anyone can join. Teen suicide needs to be taken seriously. But many do not understand risk factors or are aware of the signals of someone who is suicidal. Now in its second year on campus, S.A.S. is working for more public awareness. Members of S.A.S. are students who are worried about friends and have the desire to help others. S.A.S. has an open membership of 68. Meetings take place on a weekly basis. The group plans for guest speakers and school assemblies. Club officers: President- Tammi Burnett; Vice-President- Lisa Shirley; Secretary- Michelle Roberts; Treasurer- Steven Komanipalli; Reporter- Shannon Hester. As we neared the holiday season, we had many school activities to keep us busy. One activity which promoted spirit and enthusiasm was the Annual Door Decorating Contest. Mrs. Omar's class won the contest with a Christmas tree on her door while Mr. Engle's class dressed up as shepherds and kings for their classroom decorations.

The choir surprised the audience and pulled out kazoes during the concert they gave with the band.

"One More Night" was the theme of this year's Winter Formal which was sponsored by G A A. Photo 1. Karyn Reynolds, Adrianna McGrew 2. Rhonda Gilmore, Pat Fitzgerald, Eric Hanson, Karlene Stukey 3. OINGO BOINGO maybe . . .

During Oingo Boingo week students participated in snack and lunch time activities in an all out campus effort to get a free campus concert. These activities included games, the Post Card Slide, Post Office, the Post Card Relay, the Great Post-Card Sign Off, and the Post Card Search. There was also Oingo Boingo music played on the announcements and during snack and lunch. At the week's end we heard on KHS FM, that ol' Corona High was in fourth place . . . and so we kept on writing those post cards . . . and kept on

The MDA Dance was sponsored by the Executive Council and chaired by Jana Thacker. The participants raised over eight hundred dollars for the National Muscular Dystrophy Association by obtaining pledge donations for their dancing efforts. Students danced from noon till midnight in the Star Room to music provided by Jennifer Scarpini's DJ's, while Valerie Bulthuis and her cohorts hauled in donated hamburgers, hot dogs, and cokes to refuel the tired dancers; many who filled breaktime writing KISSFM cards. MATH DEPARTMENT

$$A^2 + B^2 = C^2$$

For the first year of high school, sophomores are required to take a mathematics course in order to graduate. After that year, some students like Michelle Spanier choose to continue taking it because it will be helpful in meeting college entrance requirements. Higher math classes like Geometry and Calculus are taken by students who are planning to enter a career where higher math is essential, such as Eric Manse and Harry Yuan. But other students like Ronnie Lopez enjoyed working with figures, while others found math frustrating but always a challenge. Photos: 1. Mrs. Barkauskus 2. Mrs. Shoemaker 3. Tina Hageman 4. SPIR

Spirit Week took place during the first week of the second semester. The Spirit Court was announced at snack on Monday by nurses, housewives and shady ladies. Incidentally, Monday was Stuffed Animal Day. The Spirit Court was: Jeff Ashcraft, Kirk Harkey, Snoopy Villasenor, Rick Sanchez, Eric Wilson, Danny Nazarek, and Thadius Daniels. At the Court Slave Auction on Tuesday, Jana Thacker and Valerie Bulthuis were found dressed as spies. Eric Wilson and Snoopy Villasenor were seen on Wednesday wearing tutus and following their owners around. Wierdo Day called for spiked and colored hair, clashing clothes and make-up that was very out-of-the-ordinary. Thursday was Gender Bender Day. We didn't find many guys dressed like girls but several spirited girls, such as Tina Woodworth, were dressed as guys. Rick Sanchez won the Belching Contest which was held at Snack. The final day of Spirit Week was Jocko Day as well as Mr. Weber's last day at CHS. At snack, we found a Dolly Parton look-a-like singing farewells to Mr. Weber. At the game that night, Snoopy Villasenor was crowned Spirit King. Photo: 1. John Duino 2. Tina Woodworth, Jana Thacker, Val Bulthuis, Tusdi Vopat, Eric Wilson, Snoopy Villasenor 3. BLOOD

'IT WON'T HURT'

It was Valentine's Day and the campus was dotted with small bobbing red heart balloons as students donated their blood to the Riverside County Blood Bank to aid their severely depleted supply. With the promise 'It won't hurt' Patti Whitehat and her ASB committee fed cookies and orange juice to the donors, filled balloons, and helped the nurses from the blood bank Hebie Castro. 'It felt funny afterward . . . ' while Kristine Barnes sorta lost a few minutes once the needle was removed. In all, 117 pints of blood were collected; not quite enough to beat Norco High, but more than enough to aid the blood bank supply. Photo 1. Tony Colapinto, Diane Behrens 2. Ruben Barrera 3. SCIENCE FAIR

Which melts faster, Margarine or Butter? Do you know what color is most visible in the dark? or the effects of Nutra-Sweet? If so you witnessed the 85-86 Science Fair. Such projects were entered by students in hopes of solving the mysteries of the world and possibly landing a spot on Nova. And some students even won! Harry Yuan took first place in the mathematics and physical sciences division with his "Mathematical Induction" entry. Jennifer Dexter placed second, Mark McCleary placed third, while Tim Shea placed fourth. Under the category of Ecology, Shree McGlocklin won first place, Kelcey Gordon placed second, Guy Knox — third and Sandi Calopinto placed fourth. In the Medicine and Health division, Linda Harnish came in first place, while Brandon Paul Rangram Chandran, and Kristine Siegers took second, third and fourth in that order. In the Biological Sciences, Kristine Jundarian placed first and Cheryl Beloz took second, while Gary Hawley placed third. Photo 1: Steve Rivera 2: Kary Brady 3: Matt Knez, Gary Stockburger

FINE ARTS

Art • Music • Photo

The idea of being placed in arts and crafts or photo class often appeals to many students because it provided a break from academic classes, or a chance to "KICK BACK" and create. In Mr. Baughman's class, Jerry Medina was busy for weeks doing his canvas painting. After weeks of working on it, however, he painted over it because it was not his style. As for Jeff Jensen, he found calligraphy to be boring. Helen Rekosiewicz found out that photography was not as simple as focus and click. Things like f stops and shutter speeds would make a picture confusing. Lisa Schmidt and Dena Brownlow had problems of their own in Mr. Nino's class, trying to get their pictures in before Monday's critique. Gina Stabbe thought the best things in Mrs. Omar's class were the clay fights, which caused Mrs. Omar to come unglued. Photo 1: Michelle Ensley. 3. Matt Stevens. 4. Brian Malloy. 7. Mrs. Gray. 8. BOYS BASKETBALL

PANTHERS WIN CONSOLATION TROPHY

The Panther Boys' Basketball Team had a good beginning. In pre-season play, Corona came home with the Consolation titles from the Riverside County Tournament. In the championship game Corona defeated La Sierra with Dan Nazarek setting the pace as he would do throughout the season, as the final buzzer found Corona in front 47-42. In first round league play Arlington fell to the Panthers with Mike Kummer, Jay Long, and Nazarek all hitting in the double figures. Against North Corona had an excellent outing, hitting 77%. Mark Grizzle had a good game in relief but North pulled away in the fourth quarter. Perris almost took the Corona Panthers, with Bill Humes strong game under the boards. Corona pulled it out 53-51. Rick Turner did an excellent job in the second quarter on defense. At the next outings Moreno turned the boards on the Panthers as we went down 48-51, even though we were strong from the floor and the free throw line. Nazarek was hot against Ramona as he netted 23, followed by Kummer with 17. We were ahead at half in the hard fought cross-town battle with Norco, but the Cougars repeated their 1985 performance and pulled it out in the final quarter. In second round play CIF playoffs were uppermost in the minds of Pratt's Panthers. Arlington again fell as Wayne McKinney came alive; Eric Wilson had his best performance to date and Turner saw much action. We got off to a slow start against league champions North, but really had strong second and fourth quarters. Kummer continued to sink his outside shots and be a defensive battler. Hemel and Perris were defeated and with CIF hopes we met the competitive Moreno Vikings, outscoring them in the third quarter and having a defensive battle in the fourth, fans watched at the game and a CIF berth slipped away. McKinney and Nazarek both had strong performance at the boards. Pratt was well pleased with the competitive attitude and endurance of the Panthers. Turner, Kummer, Humes, McKinney and Nazarek all hit in the double figures in the last surge for Panther Pride against Norco at seasons end; with the score tied Norco sank an outside shot on the buzzer to sink the Panthers to their knees. Under Coach Robles the Junior Varsity had an excellent season with Jason Humphrey receiving the Coaches Award; Scott Longerbone-Most Improved; Rich Zelazowski-Hustle Award; and the Academic Achievement Award went to Longerbone. Varsity honors were given as Mike Kummer and Dan Nazarek made the All-League first place team as Wayne McKinney was honored with a second team award. Team awards were given by Coach Pratt to Kummer as Most Valuable; as Gus Arce did for the Junior Varsity; Most Improved Varsity-Bill Humes, Hustle-Kummer; Academic Achievement Awards-Humes, Eric Koda, while Dan Nazarek and Wayne McKinney received the Coaches' Award. GIRLS BASKETBALL

McCALL NAMED TO ALL LEAGUE

The season play the Panthers got off to a 50/50 start. Coach James began to see the competitive strengths would carry them through a successful season. Pulling out close games against Elm of the World and Hecla Valley the Panthers gained needed confidence in themselves and the team unit as Joyce Hayes had a strong game with twelve points and sophomore Shelle McCall began to show a dominance at the center. With a 5-8 record overall in league play, the Panthers lost the injuries to Lisa Miller and Christine Weaver. In season opener against Arlington, the Panthers had a game representative of the season. A competitive game, this time the Panthers pulled it out by one point, other times it went the other way. Against Arlington, Hayes topped the stats for Corona. Later Corona clearly dominated the Lions as Hayes had one of her best games with twenty two points in the 64-42 victory. Julie Vitale had an impressive defensive game and Julie Vitale downed ten and performed well in her defensive role at center. Nina Manlove emerged as a leading defensive player at the seasons start and maintained her efforts throughout the season. Coach James favorite game was against Perris, on their court, 'Corona played exceptionally well' with Hays making a total of ten points. Manlove, McCall, Pam Randel, and Vitale each had eight, while Michele Robinson and Rosa Serrato had a strong game at guard. The win over Perris put Corona in a tie for the league race with Norco and Ramona. Manlove and McCall proved to be among the leagues competitive players from the floor. And against Hemet the Panthers truly showed team dominance. Corona outrebounded Hemet 49-24. Randel had ten points, as McCall led the Panthers to a 56-43 victory. With the outstanding Junior Varsity season, 17-2, Corona record books should show Ivy League dominance next year. All league honors went to Nina Manlove Honorable Mention and Shelle McCall received First Team Honors. Joyce Hayes was awarded the 'Moses' Trophy at season end ceremonies, while McCall and Manlove were awarded Co-MVP honors. Coach James awarded JV honors to Elizabeth Jones MVP, Maryann Sekel, Chris Lara-Co-Captain, with the Coaches going to Julie Nelson. HONORABLE MENTION

Darlene Webb

In their first year of Ivy League competition, the girl's soccer team finished their second season with a 9-1-2 record. They finished league play in second place just one half game behind Hemet, which qualified them for a spot in the CIF playoffs. They lost 4-2 in the first round, however, to Villa Park. The Panthers only loss in league play was against Hemet, 4-2. Goals were made by Amy Johnson and Kristie Young. The team had a chance to move closer, but one of their goals was called back on an offside call. One of the most intense games was a 0-0 tie with Norco, which ended after 80 minutes of regulation play. When asked about the game, Johnson said they did not score because they "just didn't have it." The Panthers had a chance to pull ahead on a breakaway shot by Young, but it was stopped by the Norco goalie. Johnson had a great shot deflect off of the upright and bounce away from the goal. It missed by inches, said Coach Gomes. Corona took 16 shots to Norco's 9. Corona goalie Lisa Bell gave yet another great performance with three saves. After the game, Gomes praised his fullback line Darla Bell, Michaela Roof, Kelly DeLange, and Julie Kavanaugh. The first game against Norco was continued one week later on the Panther field. Trying to break the tie, 20 minutes were allowed for play. A win would have clinched first place in Ivy League, but again it ended in a 0-0 tie. The Panthers played without midfielder Meghan Sjurson, who was out with injuries. The team had a shot early in overtime but did not seriously threaten afterwards. "There was not enough time," said Gomes. In their game against Moreno Valley, the Panthers won 4-2. Nikki Roof scored 2 goals. Amy Easum scored one and Kristin Werner scored her first goal in two years of play. Lisa Bell had 5 saves, while Julie Kavanaugh also scored a goal, only she scored for the Vikings. The offense was lead by Panther "ANAK Attacks", which were front line attacks by Amy, Nikki, Amy, and Kristie. Meghan Sjurson and Darlene Webb, both played consistently helping the Panthers in their winning season. GIRLS SOCCER GO TO CIF

CHAMPS

BOYS SOCCER WINS LEAGUE

The beginning was a period of reorganization, concentration and wonderment as the Panthers ended previous glory with three games and a fifth place trophy at the Rubidoux tournament. Corona defeated Ramona 3-0 and was soundly beaten by Hemet but they returned to defeat victor Valley and North. North ended in a shut out with Mike Zubak scoring in the sixth attempt. And Leon was named to the all-tournament team. And the unit began to form under the new lead of Coach Grove. Wonderment changed to confidence as Corona stopped the highly rated Arlington Lions in the league opener. Corona won 1-0 with a goal by Mike Zubak. Panther offense, assisted from center field by Dan Archuleta and Milo Way. At North the Corona offense met a strong defense preventing a Panther victory. Corona took Hemet 2-0 and over powered Perris on their home field. Matt and Gavin had a great outing, backed by Kelly Carpenter and Mike Raughman at half back as did Kevin Scambray in the goal. Phil Evans, Steve and Mike Zubak again anchored the defense for Corona, stopping numerous attacks as Corona added to the Panther lead again with a 5-1 win over Ramona. Leon had two goals, Archuleta, Matt, Gavin and Way, one each. Senior Rick Selby had a strong play at midfield. A highly changed team simply overpowered Hemet 3-1, at mid season with an impressive display. Matt and Gavin, Archuleta, center field. After a scoreless first half, Gavin scored and Leon added two as Corona continually hammered the Norco goal box. Espinoza had one of his best games of the season against the Cougars. As the second round began, Corona proved that when they downed Arlington again 4-2. Kevin Scambray was most impressive in the Panther goal box. The Panthers clearly dominated in second round play, followed by Perris and Moreno Valley. After a rain delay Corona again met North. Corona scored two and again the Huskie defense closed us down as they took it away 3-2, leaving Corona's game ahead in league standings. I would not have dreamed of Norco. But the Cougars were stopped in their attempt to be the spoilers, as the Panthers defeated them 4-0. Corona's first victory of the season. Espinoza, Leon, and Gavin netted the scores on assists from Archuleta as Zubak and the back line keep the goal box clean. The Norco win gave us the Ivy League Championship. Corona entered C.F. play against La Sierra winning its first win in CIF playoffs since 1981. Leon scored on a rebound from his penalty kick early in the game and the rest came in a defensive battle and we held them scoreless. Corona hosted top ranked Esperanza to pose their bid for the Championship, but the Panthers lost a hard fought battle to the Aztecs 5-0. Ending an outstanding season with a 18-2-3 record. A season ended. A season and Amanda, Leon, Mike Zubak, and Kevin Scambray were named to the All-Ivy League first team with Leon being selected by coaches as the league's Most Valuable. Milo Way, Dan Archuleta, and Matt Gavin received second team honors. In addition, Leon was honored with All-CIF First team selection. Team honors on the varsity were: MVP Offense and MVP Arm and Leg, Leon. MVP Defense, Zubak. Captain Dan Archuleta. US Army honors Rick Selby. Coaches Award Steve Dempsy. Academic Rick Selby. To play the varsity went undefeated again this year in league play. Coach Hart awarded Jim Anderson MVP honors. MVP Offense, Bob Brown. MVP Defense Robert Rivera. Captain Brian Glenn, and the Coaches Award went to Ron Robles, with David Jennings receiving Academic Award.

The wrestling team concluded with a 4-2 in league matches and a 9-2 overall. Junior Varsity was undefeated and Coach Williams expects to return next season with a stronger and tougher team. Bill Taylor and Gene Stuckenschneider finished second in league, while Don Craine, Louis Barrera, Eric Kasperbauer, Tracy LaBrie, Fred Lewis, Mark McCorkell, and Dino Sanchez finished third. Congratulations on an excellent season! At season's end team awards were presented on the varsity level to Tracy LaBrie-Team Captain; Gene Stuckenschneider-MVP; Eric Kasperbauer and Fred Lewis-Most Improved, Bill Taylor-Most Inspirational, while Louis Barrera received the Coaches' Award for his accomplishments and team spirit. EX

TRADITION

At 2:30, students could get free from those "aching assignments" and "nagging teachers." Although Liz Andrade dreaded to go home for she knew Chemistry and Geometry would be at her calling, Wendy Paine would spend an hour alone in her room and listening to the radio. On Fridays, Mrs. Hadcox merely goes home to let her dogs out and feed her husband, just to return later that evening for the activity. All and all, students just appreciate the fact that after 2:30, the time is their own.

WORK EXPERIENCE AND ROP

ROP provided students with on the job training in various courses by providing them with basic job skills. Students prepared themselves for jobs and earned credits toward graduation. After the completion of an ROP course, students received a Certificate of Training. In many instances instructors assisted students in job placement. For students who already had jobs, the work experience program was a special course offering which allowed students to receive credits for working which went toward graduation. This sounded really great to Tara Mull and Lori Overton, both boxgirls at local supermarkets, who took two modes of work experience. Photo 1 Mrs. Martinez 2 Mr. Pierce 3 Mr. 4. Mrs. Page 5. MOCK TRIAL

Did Karen Dennis, long time straight A student, try to change her B in computer science to an A? Then did she vandalize the registrar's office where grades were kept to cover up the crime? This was the case, and a group of Corona High Students, coached by Mr. Bill Wallace, were out to defend and prosecute the defendant. For two grueling Saturdays legal minds from Corona dueled with the likes from Poly, Norco, Arlington and North high schools. Corona ended in third place at the end of the competition. Corona students; Brock Gray, Tammi Burnett, Marcie Beasley, David Brannen, Keith Fenstermacher, Mitch Murhead; Joanne Levy, Gary Hawley; Dan Mahn; Vivian Aguilera, Dawnya Goode; Rangram Chandran, Johnna Taylor, Rick Simmons, Eric Simmons, all played parts varying from witness to lawyers. Corona got a verdict of guilty when they prosecuted against Poly and again won the verdict against Norco and outscored both Norco and Arlington. Joanne Levy received a trophy for best portrayal of the accused. Marcie Beasley was nominated for best defensive attorney while David Brannon was nominated best Prosecuting Attorney. Dan Mahn was also up in the prosecution witness division.

The home economics classes included courses in cooking, sewing, and home and family planning. These classes enabled students, such as Wendy Williams and Gina Stabile to learn the mysteries of preparing fine cuisine, caring for a newborn (egg), and sewing and designing their own clothing. The 'AG' department gave students a totally different environment; pig pens and plants; as they raised their animals, often to see them slaughtered. For Frank Ruvalcaba that was "different". After winning at the State Fair in August Mr. List and Mr. Doerr's metal and drafting students really got turned on, producing a wide range of well crafted drawings and products. Ian Kindberg, under the watchful eye of Mr. Burdick, found great satisfaction in his project in advanced wood, as he and his classmate worked toward their grand finale, 'thee' Tyler Mal Show. SPEECH

BURROUGHS HODGES WINNERS

During the year several Corona High students participated in regional speech contests. In the VFW, David Burroughs took first place in area competition while Amy Wills and Theresa Goldston received second and third respectively. Kim Hodges was the winner in the Lions' International Club's local competition and advanced on to state contests; in addition, Amy Wills was a finalist in the area meet. The participants in the Native Sons of the Golden West were Wills and Michele Stainbrook. Mrs. Rubin, speech coach, is looking forward to continued success in the program as this year's participants were all underclassmen. Photo 1: Amy Wills, Kim Hodges Mr. Holmes of the Lion's Club

FOREIGN LANGUAGE

HOLA! BON JOUR! HELLO!

Foreign language wasn't all "Si's and No's"! It was a year long accelerated designed to teach students the languages's grammar and and pronunciation. Burroughs found Edwards Van Muyen's German class an enjoyable challenge. Mrs. Pierce's Spanish classes students often found themselves acting out phrases with comprehension. In Mrs. Davila's classroom Tom LeBeau really discovered Loteria was fun and helpful to get the language down. With the new state requirements graduation and college entrance, enrollment in foreign language increased, as course offerings. Photo 1. Mr. Edwards Van Muyen 2. Anatomy • Biology • Chemistry • Physics SCIENCE

Science course offerings were as varied as the weather. There was everything from basic life science with Mr. Calvert to A.P. Physics with Mr. Engle. All students were encouraged to participate in the annual science fair, but for some people like Scott Ozanne, just getting to class was competition enough. Meanwhile Mr. Wallace's Biology classes saw a lot more bookwork (he was afraid to trust students like Karen Kinser with lab knives.) Besides dressing up as cool Burger King shepards, the A.P. Physics class placed bets on the success of Mr. Engle's demonstrations and experiments to relieve the pressures of the course. All in all the science departments had a very successful year and one looking forward to the use of the new facilities. Photo 1. Fish. 2. Mr. Robles. 3. Mr. Engle, Eric Mansell. 4. Mr. Cash. 5. The CHS classified employees of '86 spent many long hours trying to keep the school in working order. If they weren't trying to find or feed you they were always trying to keep you there. Mitch Shockley and Gina Uriarte have many fond memories of Danny and Buzzard whom on many occasions helped them decide that they really did want to attend 4th period. Meanwhile the ladies in attendance kept busy keeping track of where you had been (or should have been) and keeping Mom informed also. During snack and lunch the stomach's best friends kept extremely busy. With the growing number of students and the shortened snack it was hard some days to get everyone fed in time. It was not uncommon to see Chris Colladay sneaking his unfinished donuts to Mr. Finnegan's Class. Photo 1: Sheila Rhodes, Joyce Shelton, Jean Bice, Emily Rodriguez. 2. INDIVIDUALIZED EDUCATION

A Highly Dedicated Program

Students enrolled in the Special Education program recieved instruction in depth in a highly individualized manner, meeting their special needs, whether it be problems in reading comprehension or difficulty learning English; and students learning disabilities. Teachers and aides were strongly dedicated to each and every student; which helped make an excellent relationship and sense of cooperation to make a good atmosphere between teachers, aides, and students. CHAMPIONS FROM THE START

With the goal of a CIF Championship the '85 Ivy League Champions advanced through their season with a never ending display of fine individual performances and team unity. Losing only two starters last season, the team's nucleus centered around the strong pitching arm of Sandy Mathis and the likes of the never ending defensive strengths of Denise Wilson at second base and Julie Vitale behind the plate and the leadership of Elke Rosenbauer and Michelle Robinson. Sophomore Rene McCall quickly became an asset at first and in relief of Mathis, as Shellie McCall filled the opening at short and was strong at the plate. Wilson came alive as a defensive powerhouse against Norte Vista and helped hold off Moreno 2-1 in the league opener; demonstrating her offensive skill that would continue throughout the season. Pitching Coach Pucci saw newcomers Cheri Lara and Julie Bladow (her third win) give impressive performances at the plate as Corona totally overpowered Perris. Senior Michelle Robinson's right field continued to be a defensive strength as her bat was for the offensive. Amy Johnson and Francine Watson rounded out the outfield with strength and quickness. The consistent strong performances at bat by Mathis, Robinson, Johnson, and Wilson gave Corona the offensive edge against their opponents. Head coaches Byrd and Penter praised the continued spirit and skill demonstrated by the entire team throughout the season. Johnson's and Wilson's speed and 'Daring-Do' gave the Panthers enthusiasm and that necessary boost in several close instances to pull ahead on the score board. Corona's bench was definitely untypical and provided relief, strength that was totally uncharacteristic of their opponents. Lara and Latricia Kelly, plus Bladow gave the team depth to make a smooth running unit and the league championship. SWIMMING

ANOTHER NEW COACH

After a rough beginning of the season the swim team, lead by new coaches Peggy Evans and Merry Finch banded together and began their pursuit of excellence in memory of Brandon Paul. A good all-around team, the boy's squad showed promise of being a major Ivy-league power. With Chris Colladay, Eric Dorn, Mark Magee, and Guy Knox in the medley relay. Followed by Knox in the 200 free and Dorn and Magee in the 200 IM. The Panthers always had a very strong start of their dual meets. Colladay, David Schillen and Ralph Jensen followed up that start with strong performances in the short free events. Meanwhile back at the pond . . . The girls team lead by All-American Alyssa Dorn, lacked the depth of the boy's team but had many impressive individual performances. The varsity medley relay team of sophomores Kari King and Cynthia Rosenthal and juniors Chris Perkins and Dorn struggled to qualify for CIF while Kari Mendrella swam strong breaststroke races. Jennifer Heistand covered the short free events while Dorn swam the 100 fly and Perkins and King the 100 back. BASEBALL

HIT HARD MEN!

"With good reason, Corona High baseball coach Terry Phillips believes his team can give the back of its hand to most of its rivals on the Ivy League" — Jerry Soifer

The 1986 Panther baseball season began with a double-header against Canyon High School, long time rival to Corona, which ended in a split: 1st game Corona 4-2, 2nd game Canyon 4-3. Mike Kummer was the winning pitcher in the first game throwing a six hitter, striking out four and walking four. Pre-league play also included a game against Rubidoux to which the Panthers lost 9-8, and a double-header against Apple Valley whom Corona beat the first game despite the cold wind conditions. The second game was rained out. When league play began with a game against Arlington, the entire team was tense. Indeed the game proved to be close, but the Panthers emerged victorious with an 8-7 win. Kummer pitched until the seventh inning and was relieved by John Vigrass

After Arlington came North, last year's league champions. Corona beat North 8-4, and there was no doubt who had the better team

Coach Phillips was worried that after the victory his team would be over-confident and not take Perris seriously. But such was not the case when the team ended the game with an 8-2 score

Corona's returning starters were a main factor of excellent team play. The outfield consisted of Chris Gonzalez (LF), All-CIF outfielder Raul Moreno (CF), and Scott Gavett (RF). In the infield: at 3rd base-Chris DeMola, playing outstandingly at shortstop-Jason Young, at 2nd base-Jesse Ramirez, and at 1st base-JD Tengberg. The pitching staff included: Kummer, Vigrass, Mario Campos and Gene Stuckenschneider, while David Cianflocco, Tom LeBeau, and Tony Garcia covered home plate. TRACK TEAM

MAINTAINS THE TRADITION

At the beginning of the season Coach Newton wished for more rain and he got it, because he said most of his key athletes were weary after competing in winter sports and more time was needed for the coaching staff to recharge their Ray-O-Vacs. By the end of the year individual performance was realized and the team as a solid unit was accomplished. Matt Gavin ran the sprints, hurdles and relays. Snoop Villaseñor and Jason Uhles joined Gavin to be the Panthers' competitors in the sprints in early league competition. Corona is traditionally strong in the pole vault event, and this year was no exception with seniors Rick Sanchez and Ron Laird, and junior Milo Way realized 11'. Wendy Thomas and Sandy Randle ran sprints. Wendy Knoll was strong on the hurdles for the girls. Roseland Warner threw the shot and discus for the Panthers. John Ross and Tim King joined cross country runners Gus Arce, Morgan Mackey and senior Brad Glassick to give strength in the distance events for the boys, while Meghan Sjurson lead the Panthers with continued curve strength to out distance her opponents in the mile and 2 mile events. Corona was lead in the field events by Dan Nazarek, Keith Lacey, Eric Charito, and Keith Fenstermacher. Kelly had impressive throws in the discus against Norco and Moreno. Wayne McKinney and AJ Mariano had strong outings against Hemet in the high jump and gave Corona strength in the 330 hurdles. Pam Randle led the girls in the high jump competition. With the likes of Derek Gutierrez sophomore, in the hurdles and Arce and Sjurson in the distance events; Corona Track will maintain its tradition of excellence. Team

BOY'S TENNIS

NINO RETURNS

Led by the power and attitude of senior Erik Koda, the Panthers had one of the best spring seasons in the history of CHS. In pre-league and early season play, Koda found little competition as he easily defeated his opponents 6-0. Rob Grant and John Palmieri played the number two and three spots respectively. Palmieri and Steve Saunders had an excellent season in doubles play on the varsity level as the number one combination. Playing powerful tennis, Rick Turner and Mike Munoz were strong on the back court in the number two doubles position as they rounded out Coach Nino's Varsity Squad. Don Woo and Mark Krueger rounded out the individual performance spots. Corona was a true powerhouse this year.

To All Our Wrestlers -

Just a little message to say you were great!! Most of you started out as little floppy fishes and now, as coach would say, you are all stud! We've enjoyed being part of the 1985-86 Corona Wrestling team. We won't forget how funny you guys looked when doing your warm up exercises or hearing those strange calls like - leg in, crotch ride, and the ever so popular
"Saturday Night"!

Thanks for everything guys -
it was fun!

Melinda, We've been best friends for almost a year now and I just want to thank you for being there when I needed you, whether to tell you about a new guy or cry on your shoulder when I wanted to become a run away of guys. You're a super friend and buddy. Love you! Let's go!

Daniel, You are a very important and loving part of my life. This year has been so very special, since I shared it with you. Each and every day my love for you grows.
We've shared so many wonderful times together and I know we'll have lots more. I am the luckiest girl in the world to have been blessed with such a sweet and terrific boyfriend. I'll always love you sweetheart! Love Always and forever, Lissa ☺

Lissa, you are the best thing that has happened to me. I am so glad that we are as one.
Every minute that we spend together is very special to me.
I love you so much more than words can express. You are the sweetest and best girlfriend in the world.
Love, always, Daniel Alan
